This course is Intermediate and Advanced Ancient Greek II (GRK 2020/2030). It will offer the examination of a single author. This semester Lucian's Verae Historiae will be the subject of this examination. Two-thirds of the course will focus on increasing facility of translation. Each Friday we will discuss critical approaches to Lucian's corpus.

TEXT

Lucian's Verae Historiae (handout)
Liddell and Scott's An Intermediate-Greek Lexicon (ISBN: 0199102066)

GRADES

Homework	60%
Quizzes	20%
Final exam	20%

Attendance and participation:

Be sure to attend class regularly; your attendance and participation, which is often demonstrated through active listening, is a graded component of the course. The use of laptops, phones and other electronic devices will result in a significantly lower grade.

Homework:

Homework must be submitted by the end of each class.

Quizzes:

Will be held every two weeks.

Final exam:

The final exam will be held on Monday of exam week (May 15). Any rescheduling must be approved by the Dean of Students.

Learning Disabilities & Accommodations:

Carthage makes every effort to provide accessible facilities and programs for individuals with disabilities. Please see me during the first week of class if you anticipate needing any accommodations. You also need to provide documentation of a disability to Diane Schowalter in the Advising Center (x5802).
