Kyrie and Gloria

Great Mass in C, K 427

W. A. Mozart (1756-1791)

Carthage Choir and Orchestra

Lord, have mercy;
Christ, have mercy;
Lord have mercy.

Glory to God in the highest
and peace to God's people on earth.

Prayer of the Day

As we now enter into the contemplation of the passion
of our Lord Jesus Christ
and meditate on the salvation of the world
through his sufferings, death, burial, and resurrection,
let us pray.

Everlasting God, in your endless love for the human race
you sent our Lord Jesus Christ to take on our nature
and to suffer death on the cross.

In your mercy enable us to share in his obedience to your will
and in the glorious victory of his resurrection,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Reading: Philippians 2:5-11

Paul quotes from an early Christian hymn that describes Jesus' humble obedience, even to death, and his exaltation as Lord of all.

- ⁵ Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus,
⁶ who, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God
as something to be exploited,
⁷ but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.
And being found in human form,
⁸ he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death —
even death on a cross.
⁹ Therefore God also highly exalted him
and gave him the name
that is above every name,
¹⁰ so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
¹¹ and every tongue should confess
that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

O my people, what have I done unto thee?
or wherein have I wearied thee?
Testify against me.

Agios o Theos. Holy God.
Agios Ischyros. Holy and mighty.
Agios Athanatos, Holy Immortal One
eleison, imas. have mercy upon us.

Prayers (cont.)

Saving God,
give your church the mind of Christ,
that boldly professing your name
it may humbly serve the neighbor and all in need.
Merciful God, hear our prayer.

Almighty God,
break down walls of division throughout the world,
so that in this holy week, people of all faiths may grow in understanding and mutual respect for one another.
Merciful God, hear our prayer.

Redeeming God,
rescue your beloved world from hatred and terror,
so that all nations may turn from evil
and walk in paths of righteousness and peace.
Merciful God, hear our prayer.

Compassionate God,
you meet us in the depths of human suffering.
Hear the cries of the abandoned, the grieving, and the sick,
and let your light shine in the darkness.
Merciful God, hear our prayer.

Life-giving God,
walk with those awaiting baptism in the joyful Eastertide.
May we all die daily to sin and rise to new life in Christ.
Merciful God, hear our prayer.

Eternal God,
we remember all who have died and are commended
into your hands.
Keep us in communion with them as we remember
your promise of resurrection and eternal life.
Merciful God, hear our prayer.

Receive these prayers and all that we fail to ask,
O God, for the sake of Jesus Christ who restores us to life.
Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Otche nash

D. S. Bortniansky (1751-1825)

Carthage Women's Ensemble

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

Closing Prayer

Svete tihi, Op. 9, Nr. 21

Pavel Chesnokov (1877-1944)

Carthage Women's Ensemble and Carthage Choir Women

Gladsome light,
pure brightness,
glory of the Immortal One, the heavenly Father,
holy and blessed one, the Lord Jesus, the Christ.

Now that we have come to the setting of the sun
and behold the light of evening,

we praise you, Lord:

Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit, one God.

You are worthy in every place, now and forever,
to be praised by joyous hearts,

Son of God, the source of life,

all the world shall praise and glorify you.
