Chamber Music Series 2010 – 2011

Made possible with a grant from the Helen C. Smolenski Chamber Music Fund of the Racine Community Foundation

Sunday, September 26, 2010 @ 3:00 pm Trio Voronezh

The dazzling virtuosity of Russia's Trio Voronezh cannot be overstated. They will captivate those who enjoy the fiery passions of Russian folk, classical and gypsy dance music.

Friday, November 12, 2010 @ 7:30 pm Anonymous 4

Anonymous 4's rich, otherworldly vocal harmonies – along with its attention to historical detail, oneness of sound and vast early music discography – has set the standard for all early and vocal music ensembles to follow.

Sunday, March 27, 2011 @ 3:00 pm Imani Winds

Masters of the wind quintet standards, Imani Winds is among the most exciting and inventive ensembles in the chamber music world today. Its joyous energy and elegant virtuosity has won over audiences world-wide.

All concerts are held in the A.F. Siebert Chapel
