Upon graduation in May, Adryana Kusyk, senior music major emphasizing piano pedagogy, plans to attend graduate school to pursue her interest in music therapy. Elizabeth Martin is double majoring in music and mathematics with a minor in secondary education. Following graduation, she plans to volunteer with the U.S. Peace Corps, hoping to fulfill her dreams of teaching high school math in Africa.

Elizabeth and Adryana thank all of those who have supported our learning and growth. Thank you to Karen Suarez, for sharing all of your secrets to beautiful horn playing. To Dr. Ripley, for the opportunities to play amazing repertoire around the world. To our families and friends, for the unending love and support you have given us through the years.
