Time The Fifties
Place Madame Flora's Parlor

The opera is in two short acts; Act II takes place a week later than Act I.

Madame Flora makes a living as a scam artist, bilking people out of their money through staged séances. Monica and Toby are reluctant accomplices. On this occasion, the sham becomes reality, ultimately with tragic results.

Time Ancient times
Place Middle East

The action occurs in a poor hovel, the home of Amahl and his widowed mother.

Amahl, a lad not given to understatement, has difficulty convincing his mother concerning a wonderful star in the night sky. Sleep is interrupted by the arrival of three kings who ask for respite on their journey following that star. Amahl offers a gift to the Child whom the kings seek, and he experiences the miracle of Christmas.
