Faculty Note

The Theatre Department is excited to present 11 new dance works by Carthage's own emerging choreographers in its fifth annual student dance concert, Away From the Mirror. This has become an important component to the dance program by providing our dance artists opportunities to develop and share their inspirations through dance, to learn about the choreographic process, and to share in the leadership and management of their own production. Tonight, these choreographers, who are thrilled to bring their works out of the studio and onto the stage, will introduce their final drafts. Please enjoy the show!

AWAY FROM THE MIRROR

"I started to work on my first concert, angushing over the question 'What is dancing?'
I allowed myself one assumption: dance is movement in space and time."

— Twyla Tharp from Tank Dive
